Parking at the D.O.C. House - 1

There are several options available for members visiting the D.O.C. House to attend a class, meeting, or other event.

On the Hill

Parking in the marked spaces along the fence is OK!

The spaces along the fence next to Hilton Field Road are labelled “Parking for HCC Patrons Only”, but this is inaccurate. These spaces are Dartmouth College campus parking sites, and as both the D.O.C. House and the Hanover Country Club are Dartmouth College properties, patrons of both organizations are free to use the spots.

The spots shown in this image are OK to use for parking when attending classes or other events at the D.O.C. House. This image is taken from the upper slope of the hill, near the walkway in front of the golf course clubhouse.

In Front of the D.O.C. House

If your car has handicapped plates or a permit, you may park along the roundabout in front of the D.O.C. House, near the two signs at the bottom of the lot. Please do not park in front of the doors, and do not park on the interior of the circle, or on the grass.

The image at the right shows the handicapped signs at the lower end of the D.O.C. House drive. While the signs indicate space for two vehicles, additional vehicles may park in the same area provided they are not blocking the driveway, the road, or any of the building entrances.

Occom Ridge/along the pond road
Watch the signs!
You may park along Occom Ridge provided your car is following the flow of traffic, is parked on the side of the road furthest from Occom Pond, and is located beyond the location of the sign shown below.

Bottom of the Hill

Parking in the gravel lot is not acceptable!

The gravel or dirt lot located at the bottom of the hill on Hilton Field Road is not acceptable. This lot is specifically designated for the sole use of the Hanover Country Club and its patrons. OSHER@Dartmouth members parked here run the risk of their vehicle being towed.
